

APD NEWS

Public Information Office: (512) 974-5017

715 E. 8th St. Austin, Texas 78701

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 19, 2010

Contact: Public Information Office, 974-5017

Media Advisory

APD Dances "Thriller" for SCARE for a CURE and Breast Cancer Awareness

On Wednesday, October 20, 2010, APD Assistant Chiefs, Officers and Civilian employees will perform "Thriller" at APD Headquarters to promote Breast Cancer Awareness in Austin and the SCARE for a CURE 2010 Haunt, "H1Z1: Zombie Wasteland."

Thriller Dance
SCARE for a CURE
Wednesday, October 20, 2010
7 p.m.
APD Headquarters

The 2009/2010 beneficiary for SCARE for a CURE proceeds is the Breast Cancer Resource Center of Texas (BCRC). BCRC provides a caring network of breast cancer survivors to answer questions and provide support.

SCARE for a CURE is an Austin-based 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that raises money for cancer charities. SCARE's President and Co-Founder is APD Detective Jarrett Crippen. For more information visit www.scareforacure.org.

Media Advisory: Media please call APD PIO if you plan to attend.

###

